Comparison:

The Modern Recruitment Methods

The 21st century has seen a significant rise in technology and has seen modern day recruitment methods grow in influence and make a difference in landing candidates for organizations all over the United States.

KINDS OF E-RECRUITMENT

E- Recruitment is the well-articulated technique for effective utilization of internet technology to improve efficiency as well as effectiveness of the recruitment process.

Major two kinds of E-recruitment involve,

- Use of job portals
- Online career option in the organization’s web site I. Use of Job Portals:

Here are a few tips to ensure you get the most out of job portals for recruitment:

1. Recruitment budgets are limited and companies need to be able to spend their resources where they make the most sense. Find job boards that bring you the most qualified applicants, as investing in those will bring you a high return on investment.
2. A job portal doesn't guarantee that you'll get a job. It's simply a job application tool that allows you to apply for jobs and connect with potential employers. Research job portals carefully before you agree to pay fees to use their job-hunting and job-application services.

II. Online Career Option in The Organization's Web Site:

The E-recruitment is online career option huge companies have started adopting this option. Website will have a separate can apply online only for the job and they will be called at the time of respective requirement in future. This method is also very useful to save the time as well as resources of the organization. Many companies like, Sun Pharma, GlaxoSmithKline, BAN labs ltd, Kotak Mahindra Bank, etc. are using online career option in their websites.

Advantages of E-Recruitment are:

- Lower costs to the organization. Also, posting jobs online is cheaper than advertising in the newspapers.
- No intermediaries.

- Reduction in the time for recruitment (over 65 percent of the hiring time).
- Facilitates the recruitment of right type of people with the required skills.
- Improved efficiency of recruitment process
- Gives a 24 X 7 access to an online collection of resumes
- Online recruitment helps the organizations to weed out the unqualified candidates in an automated way.

Disadvantages of E-Recruitment:

Apart from the various benefits, e-recruitment has its own share of shortcomings and disadvantages. Some of them are:

- Screening and checking the skill mapping and authenticity of millions of resumes is a problem and time-consuming exercise for organizations
- There is low Internet penetration, no access and lack of awareness of internet in many locations across India.
- Organizations cannot depend solely on the online recruitment methods.
- In India, the employers and the employees still prefer a face-to-face interaction rather than sending e-mails.
- High volume of response

CONCLUSION

E-Recruitment is becoming one of the important tools for selecting a required pool of human resource. Although this method has few disadvantages but it is completely relevant and applicable in today's modern world. In spite of the huge amount of research available in the field e-recruiting, there are still many possibilities to proceed accepting of e-recruiting research & apply. Mainly the recruiter perspective and research regarding the influence of e-recruiting on the overall recruitment process established slight consideration.
